FUTURESEARCH TRIALS OF NEUROLOGY & SLEEP MEDICINE, LP

With sites in Austin and Dallas, Texas, FutureSearch Trials is dedicated to conducting quality clinical trials. FutureSearch specializes in trials for diseases of the central nervous system.

FutureSearch's experienced clinical investigators are board certified physicians with deep ties to the communities they serve. FutureSearch has gained the trust and respect of pharmaceutical, research, and other healthcare companies by continually providing quality data and medical oversight to those involved in clinical trials.

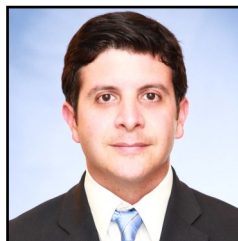

Dr. John D. Hudson, Principal Investigator at the Austin site (FutureSearch Trials of Neurology and Sleep Medicine), and his dedicated research staff have over 18 years of experience conducting Phase I-IV studies for investigational drugs and devices. Dr. Hudson has an on-site private practice which complements research activities.
