FUTURESEARCH TRIALS OF NEUROLOGY & SLEEP MEDICINE, LP

With sites in Austin and Dallas, Texas, FutureSearch Trials, LP is dedicated to conducting quality clinical trials. FutureSearch specializes in studies for central nervous system conditions.

FutureSearch's experienced clinical investigators are board certified physicians with deep ties to the communities they serve. By continually providing quality data and medical oversight to those involved in clinical trials, FutureSearch has gained the trust and respect of pharmaceutical, research, and other healthcare companies.

Dr. John D. Hudson, Principal Investigator at the Austin site (FutureSearch Trials of Neurology and Sleep Medicine), and his dedicated research staff have over 18 years of experience conducting Phase I-IV studies for investigational drugs and devices. Dr. Hudson has an on-site private practice which complements research activities.
